CENTRAL OFFICE MANAGER'S REPORT

I've reached out and had conversations with the Ft. Myers Central office and offered our hand with anything in our power to help them get back up and running. The Office manager did say she would assess the situation and get back in touch with PCI.

Operations:

a. Inventory for the office will be conducted Saturday October 15th volunteers needed.
b. Bookkeeper was sought out agreed to the duties that are listed in the Bookkeeper contract.
c. Gratitude Dinner Tickets: We opened 3 more tables.
d. Closed office due to Hurricane Ian
e. PCI announces Book of the Month, each month a book will be chosen by an office volunteer and discounted for that month. This month's book is As Bill Sees it Large Print.
f. Pay Pal Conversation: I recently spoke with PayPal our account was set-up as a non-Profit 501C3 account and we pay a rate of 1.99 % which is called the Charity Rate and that's the lowest it can go the rate does vary depending on what kind of credit card is used from 1.99 % and up no specific number was given. Below are the Pay Pal Fee's we have paid over the last month.

g. Pay Pal Fees: 9/12/2022-$45.60, 9/23/2022-$40.03, 10/7/2022-$37.98 totaling $131.23
h. Secure Merchant: Secure Merchant has offered PCI a merchant account where the customer will be charged 4% per card transaction at a flat rate of $39.99 a month, I spoke with the account rep and this a promotion that will not change if decide to take this route now, she did express she's not sure how long this will be available to us.

Attendance:

a. Visitors/Customers: 139
b. Volunteers 8

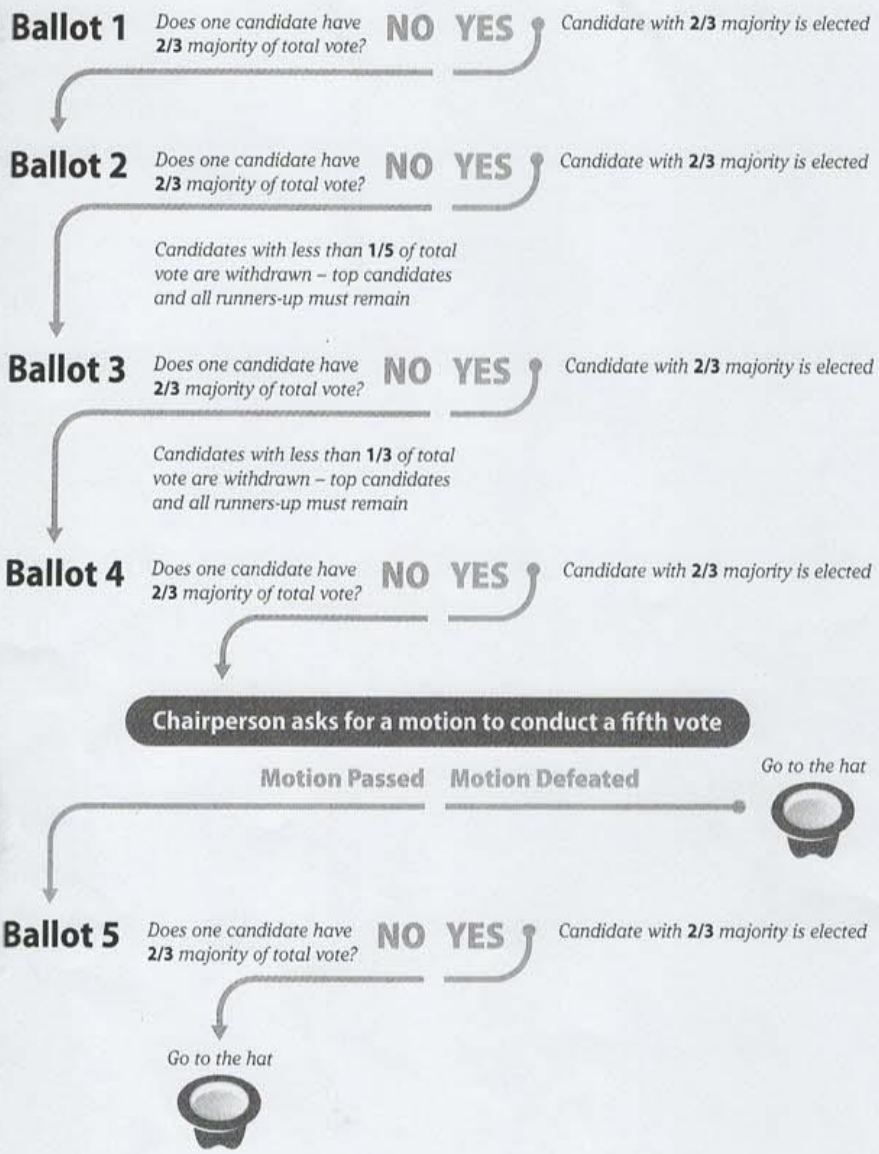
THE THIRD LEGACY PROCEDURE



Appendix G

APPENDIX G:

THIRD LEGACY PROCEDURE

PURPOSE

A.A.'s Third Legacy Procedure is a special type of electoral procedure, used primarily for the election of delegates and regional and at-large trustees. It is considered to be unique to A.A., and at first glance, appears to introduce a strong element of chance into a matter that should depend solely on the judgment of the majority. In practice, however, it has proved highly successful in eliminating the influence of factions or parties that seem to thrive on most political scenes. The railroading of a candidate for election is made difficult, if not impossible, since voters have a wide selection of candidates to choose from. More importantly, a second-place candidate who may be extremely well qualified but without early popular support is encouraged to stay in the balloting rather than withdraw.

PROCEDURE

1. The names of eligible candidates are posted on a board. All voting members (of the area or Conference body) cast written ballots, one choice to a ballot. The tally for each candidate is posted on the board.

- The first candidate to receive two-thirds of the total vote is elected.

2. Withdrawals start after the second ballot. If any candidate has less than one-fifth of the total vote, his or her name is automatically withdrawn—except that the top two candidates must remain. (In case of ties for second place, the top candidate and all tied runners-up remain as candidates.)

3. After the third ballot, candidates with less than one-third of the total vote will be withdrawn automatically, except the two top candidates remain. (In case there are ties for second place, the top candidate and all tied runners-up remain as candidates.)

4. After the fourth ballot, if no candidate has two-thirds of the total vote, the candidate with the smallest total is automatically withdrawn, except that the top two candidates remain. In case there are ties for second place, the top candidate and all tied second-place candidates remain.

- At this point, the chairperson asks for a motion, second, and a simple majority of hands on conducting a fifth and final ballot.
- If this motion is defeated, balloting is over and the choice is made by lot—"going to the hat"—immediately.
- If the motion carries, a fifth and final ballot is conducted.

5. If after the fifth ballot no election occurs, the chairperson announces that the choice will be made by lot (from the hat). At this point, the top two candidates remain. In case there are ties for first place, all tied first place candidates remain. In case there are no ties for first place, the top candidate and any tied second-place candidates remain.

6. Lots are then drawn by the teller, and the first one "out of the hat" is the delegate (or trustee or other officer).

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Hi Ladies and Sir - As to the Budget Overview for next year, we all know the story about anybody could/ somebody should/ nobody did..... well today I am "nobody the treasurer" and have undertaken to put on paper something we can present as the 2023 budget for PCI. As a base, I used 2022 actual figures for Jan through Aug and divided by 8 to get a reasonable average, then compared it to the August actual just to see if something might be skewing the figure. For anything that I knew would occur at a certain time, both expense and event related stuff, I put them in that slot only rather than spreading them across the year. For what I didn't know (like Website expense) I took a guess. For Prudent Reserve Distributions guessed Total of $1500 per quarter without designating who gets what. What you are seeing in the Overview is the annual totals. If any of you have suggestions or can spot some glaring error, please let me know so we can either address it before Steering or discuss it during Steering and correct for presentation to the Body. The negative net income is, as always, directly related to the distribution figure. B3

Also noted that this 2023 budget detail work is saved on the PC that Allen calls the "Volunteer Computer" and is not on Allen's or other desktops in office.

Bill Griffith Wilson

Bill Griffith Wilson was born on November 26, 1895 in Vermont. His parents were Emily Griffith and Gilman "Gilly" Wilson, He was born at his parents' home and business, the Mount Aeolus Inn and Tavern. Gilly was an immensely likable man, known as an excellent storyteller with a fine voice that got even better with a few drinks. Gilly was what some would term today a functioning alcoholic. Emily taught school before she married. She had intelligence, beauty, determination, ambition and immense courage. True to her Griffith heritage, Emily was a proud woman, hard, and unforgiving who increasingly soured on her husband's free and easy ways. Early on, it was evident that these two were of extremely dissimilar temperaments.

It was the night before Thanksgiving when the pains of child labor drove Emily from out of the kitchen into the north parlor. She lay on a couch there, trying to breathe, doubling over as the contractions caused her great pain. She screamed and cried out as midnight passed. The midwife and her mother tried to comfort her. Emily was fond of saying that Bill's birth had almost killed her. Some people speculated the extremely difficult birth kept her distant from her son. Isn't it interesting the future founder of AA entered the world in a little room in back of a bar? One cool autumn night, a very drunk Gilly Wilson took his son for a late-night wagon ride. Gilly was silent as they rode out to a shed. Leaving his son in the wagon, Gilly went inside for some time, not forgetting his jug of liquor. In the carriage a young Bill Wilson, not yet ten years old, waited and feared the worst as he remembered Emily and Gilly fighting AGAIN at dinnertime. "'You'll take care of her? Be good to your mother, and to little Dorothy too." No further explanation was given. When he woke in the morning, his sister, Dorothy, was waiting to tell him their father had gone away. This was in the autumn of 1905. Bill didn't see his father again until the summer of 1914, and by then they had discovered they had nothing at all to say to one another. In the spring of 1906, Emily Wilson took her children on a picnic to Emerald Lake, where she made two announcements to her children. First, their father was never coming back, and secondly, she was moving to Boston to study osteopathic medicine and become a doctor. The second revelation had an additional surprise. The children were not going with her but, would be staying with her parents. Bill and his sister, Dorothy, were cared for and therefore, raised by their maternal grandparents, Fayette Griffith and Ella Griffith, in their house. Years later, Emily asked for Dorothy to come live with her and her new husband, but not Bill.

Walsingham Group meets at 7pm daily literature at 14100 Walsingham Rd, Largo.
Spoke on 9/3. 47 in attendance. Raffled Big Book Dictionary. Basket $55.50

Tim "Everyone knew that I needed help, except for me."

Stephanie "My life is consistently better with a sponsor, and holding myself accountable, so I can be rigorously honest, saved my life."

Z "Fellowship and sober bowling has really changed my life, come and join us!"

Drew "The best thing that I can do is help others get the same joy, peace, and serenity.

Brian "The most important thing in my life is my recovery."

At the End of the Rainbow Women's meets Saturdays at 9am and 10am at Presbyterian Church, 2021 Nebraska Ave, Palm Harbor. Spoke on 9/10. 85 in attendance. Raffled A.A. Service Manual. Basket $104.

Kristen SD 11/25/20 "Do what you can do for them, but don't make it about you. See p.407-419."

Laura SD 10/11/88 "Anger Management was probably one of the best things for my sobriety. I try to be an example of the Big Book today."

Serenity Seekers meets at 7pm Tuesday, and 6:30pm Friday at First Presbyterian Church in downtown Dunedin Spoke on 9/17. 79 in attendance. Raffled Big Book. Basket $99.55

Cathy SD 6/19/07 "I learned to take the good with the bad, and not to sulk, cuz it isn't about me. I still do these same things I did when I got sober-Don't drink, go to meetings. Service in Home Group. Pray and meditate. Have a sponsor and ask for help."

Mark SD 10/25/99 "Before, I was maintaining life, now I'm living life. If you are worried, pray, and if you pray, why worry?"

No More Isolation meets daily at 6pm in Taylor Park, Largo, Shelter 1. Spoke on 9/24. 53 in attendance. Raffled Big Book. Basket $62.

Ray SD 6/20/13 "Big Huge cookout at Shelter 4, Last Sunday of every month."

Gary SD 8/15/03 "I'm supposed to be an asset to the community, not a liability. Just because you stop drinking, doesn't mean you're gonna be an immediate success, and that people will like you. You've gotta be likeable. Unity is keep showing up, and working the steps, or there's only 3 ways you go: The Big House, The Bug House, or The Box."

Lauren SD 8/25/14 "If you are a newcomer, keep coming back. It gets better, if you keep coming back, and that "it" is you!"

Total contributions for the month are $453.80 which includes $132.75 in personal donations.

OUR TRADITIONS - TEN

SHORT FORM: "Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy."

Outside Issues Can Tear Us Apart

What is an outside issue? An outside issue is anything outside of my relationship with God through sobriety.

The tenth tradition is rather clear as it applies to A.A. We have prospered by having no opinion on outside matters and not being drawn into controversy. For instance, A.A. has avoided the outside issues that tore apart the Washingtonians. A.A. has never become crusaders or taken stands on important but outside issues, "particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion". (See the long form of this tradition)

Bill Wilson differentiates the responsibilities of the A.A. member and the A.A. group in this tradition by saying on p. 177 of the "12 & 12" that the tenth tradition does not "mean that the members of Alcoholics Anonymous, now restored as citizens of the world, are going to back away from their individual responsibilities to act as they see the right upon issues of our time. But when it comes to A.A. as a whole, that's quite a different matter. In this respect, we do not enter into public controversy because we know that our society will perish if it does."

Step-Tradition Parallel

The relationship of the tenth tradition to the tenth step is this: I can be at peace and avoid outside issues by taking my inventory and not yours. I avoid controversy by taking stands with the attitude of a peacemaker. The tenth concept of service takes the process one step further and specifies what kind of inventory I should be writing about: The responsibilities for which God has given me authority.

The tenth step poses the question, "How can I survive successfully in the world by taking my own inventory and promptly admitting it when I am wrong?" The tenth tradition supplies the answer; "I survive by being a peacemaker with you because I am at peace with myself through my own inventories."

LONG FORM: "No A.A. group or member should ever, in such a way as to implicate A.A., express any opinion on outside controversial issues — particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion. The Alcoholics Anonymous groups oppose no one. Concerning such matters they can express no views whatever."

Now Dr. Emily, she married Dr. Charles Strobel in 1923. While Bill had no relationship as an adult with his father, he did stay in touch with his mother. In 1956, Bill persuaded Emily to move east where she resided at a New York nursing home. Dr. Emily died in 1961 at 91 years old after 5 years of mental and physical issues. Although in communication, their relationship was always complicated and distant. His father also remarried and had more children. Bill met them but had very limited interaction. Bill Wilson had a some very good reasons to feel isolated and abandoned as a child.

With love and service from Leslie B., the archives liaison to the Plain & Straight. A statement about District 1 Archives Committee: is a means by which we collect, preserve and share the rich and meaningful heritage of our fellowship.

THE "WORTH" OF SOBRIETY

Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting declining outside contributions

TWELVE STEPS AND TWELVE TRADITIONS, p.160

When I go shopping I look at the prices and if I need what I see, I buy it and pay. Now that I am supposed to be in recovery, I have to straighten out my life. When I go to a meeting, I take a coffee with sugar and milk, sometimes more than one. But at the collection time, I'm either too busy to take money out of my purse, or I do not have enough, but there I am there because I need this meeting. I heard someone suggest dropping the price of a beer into the basket, and I thought, that's too much! I almost never give more than $1. Like many others, I rely on the more generous members to finance the fellowship. I forget that it takes money to rent the meeting room, by the milk, sugar and cups. I will pay, without hesitation, $2 for a cup of coffee at a restaurant after a meeting or a $3 energy drink before the meeting; I always have money for that. So, how much is my sobriety and inner peace worth?

W&W Printing Update

The new Fall W&W are at Central Office. We ordered 1200 again as that seems to be the number that is working for Now.

Meeting Changes

I am tracking the Meeting Changes Monthly to coordinate with The P&S chair so they can post them in the P&S. This will help the New P&S chair in the future.

I would ask if anyone adds or updates a meeting that was called in and there is no Add Meeting or Meeting Change form filled out to send an Email so I can include in my tracking.
