Intergroup will host a table to provide information about all our service opportunities. Lunch will be provided. Intergroup to provide a gift certificate in the amount of $50.00 to be used at Central Office.

9. New Business

Chair presented information on current mold situation in Central Office. Testing was performed by licensed professional; landlord and insurance notified. It was determined that we had some high concentrations of dangerous mold. Next step was to determine source of leaks in the ceiling and the bathroom. We had contractors come in as did the Landlord. It was ultimately determined that leaks were the Landlord's responsibility. There was a bit of delay as the Landlord is a large corporation and multiple levels of approval were required. Currently waiting for word on whether we can access separate space and when remediation will begin.

Extensive discussion on issues caused by mold: health concerns, our inventory, office closure. Motion by Brian, seconded by Pam, to keep office closed for another week, to regroup prior to next Intergroup meeting. Passed.

10. AA related Announcements – None.

Searcy R Whaley - 57 Years of Sobriety

Searcy R. Whaley was born March 1910 in Texas and died September 2003 at the age of 93, leaving a life legacy of joy and service to others. For 57 years, Searcy was an active member of AA. “Trust God, clean house, help others…and it doesn't have to be done in that order” he was known to say often with a smile.

Searcy attended the Yale School on Alcohol Studies in 1948. His friend Bill Wilson insisted he attend to help their “cause”. After graduation, he returned to Texas. Then, Dr. Jellinek moved the School to Texas Christian University. When he became ill and unable to carry on with the school administration, he asked Searcy to help him establish some hospitals where alcoholics could go, sober up, and be taken to AA meetings. In 1949 Searcy, with help from Dr. Jellinek, established alcoholic hospitals, the predecessor to today's drug and alcohol treatment centers in Lubbock, Dallas, and Houston, as well as Carlsbad. Alcoholics were brought in for one week. The cost was $125, which included doctors, hospital, nurses, and medications. They were taken to AA meetings and 75 percent of them stayed sober.

Bill’s good friend-and who he called his sponsor-was Ebby Thacher. Ebby could not maintain long term sobriety. In early 1953 Bill Wilson came to Dallas. Searcy was head of one of these alcoholic hospitals. Bill wanted so much for Ebby to sober up and stay sober. Bill didn't even know exactly where Ebby was, but a couple of mutual friends found him on the Bowery. They dried him out, gave him a pint of whiskey for the plane ride, and he flew to Dallas to go to Searcy’s hospital. Searcy said: “Ebby was in bad shape physically, mentally, spiritually after being drunk for the better part of 18 years and sleeping on the streets. And he was very unruly. He cussed out Bill and Dr. Bob and me and everybody else. Ebby was still very resentful because he could have been one of the forefathers of AA.” Ebby asked if he could go to a meeting and they did. He got sober and stayed that way. And he helped others, got a job and he did well. He stayed 5 years before going back to New York. In time, he returned to the Dallas clinic for treatment after a relapse, though it was no longer operated by Searcy. He remained sober in Texas for seven years.

Searcy was always passionate about helping Ebby and anyone struggling with an alcohol problem. His participation in the opening of treatment facilities has helped so many struggling with alcoholism.

Grapevine Representatives are the link between the AA Grapevine and groups. It's a fun way to get involved!

The group Grapevine representative is the person who makes sure that copies are available and displayed at meetings and lets everyone know what's in the latest issue.

Grapevine reps at the group, district, and area-level play an important role in the AA service structure, helping to carry the message of AA to the alcoholic who still suffers.

Hot Diggity Dog!

Alpha Club is having a Hot Dog Eating Contest.

We supply the dogs, you supply the skills.

Sunday, October 8th, 2023.

Contest at Noon .
Following the Gratitude Meeting at 10 AM.

Entry fee $5.
100% of the pot goes to the person who eats the most dogs in a 5-minute time period.

Please bring items to share in a Potluck Luncheon after the contest.

A Design For Living Group meets at 7pm Wednesdays at 7pm at Central Christian Church at 1200 S. Keene Rd, in Clearwater. Spoke on 8/5. 52 in attendance. Basket $71.

Nick SD 12/10/20 - "I found the Unity meeting, which is like meeting shopping in the meeting."

Sean SD 6/25/19 - "I always felt like people were looking at me. I hated that feeling I had. Now I realize it was just me judging myself. My story was written in this book, and the way I felt was written in the book. I got a sponsor, and he didn't deviate from the book at all, and I had a spiritual awakening when I went through the steps. My God was brought to me by an agnostic. I just believe the next step always brought me closer to my H.P."

Brett SD 12/18/12 - "I thought my kid was gonna say my daddy died from drugs and alcohol. I came back to AA, I got a masters. I'm not better, I'm not cured. I think alcohol is on the outer peel of the onion. There's still this lil shy kid. I talk to my sponsor every day. We don't always talk about AA, we talk about life. Now my family likes me, trusts me, and wants me around."

Attitude Adjustment Group meets Monday thru Saturday at 7am at Grace Lutheran Church on Highland Ave. 64 in attendance. Basket $73.

Phillip - "We go around the room, so everybody gets an opportunity to share. People get to know each other better, that's what a home group is for. Exchanging numbers, calling, each other. We're all in the same boat- Recovery."

Sydney - "Looking at God's artwork in the clouds, it's not a religious program. If you start the day with a meeting, it's a spiritual day from the first time you open the door, all meeting long, to the end, and the miracles keep coming. We continue to take inventory, make right, and our next is to grow, this is not an overnight matter. Now my daughter has 14 years in N/A."

Jim SD 4/20/19 - "I always convinced myself that I was the victim, and it was everybody else's fault. I was a workaholic before I was an alcoholic. It's amazing, the things that happen, when you let go, and let God."

Holiday Isles Group meets at St. Albans Church in St. Pete Beach. 12 meetings a week. See days and times aapinellas.org . Spoke on 8/19. 55 in attendance. Basket $56.

Jenn K. SD 11/16/98 - "When the pain comes, it won't hurt as bad, and it doesn't come as often, if you follow this program."

Matt SD 6/25/99 - "Keep going to different meetings until you find your tribe of people. I joined because they have a great men's meeting, and they smoke cigars. I wanted a girlfriend, my sponsor said go get a service commitment."

Progress Not Perfection Women's Group meets Mondays at 9:30am at All Saints Church at 1700 Keystone Rd in Palm Harbor. Basket $106.

Kim SD 5/21/91 - "When I moved to a new town, I missed my home group, I went to a new meeting, in a new town, got a new home group, did service work, and a lot of miracles did happen."

Pam SD 10/85 - "I moved here 6 months ago. At 29, I finally got sober and finally got closer to my family. My mother died with 50 years sober, when she passed."

Upcoming Groups Speaking:

09/16 - San Martin
09/23 - 301 Group

Step 9 - "Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others."

What Do You Say When Making Amends? – The Step 9 Amends Letter

Sometimes it can be hard to know what to say when preparing to make amends. There may be so many times we feel we let someone down that it can be hard to know where to begin. We want to convey our heartfelt remorse but worry that our words will fall short.

Consider writing a letter to the person you're making amends to—and then share it with them, by reading it to them aloud. Here are some initial guidelines for writing your letter:

Be specific and avoid global statements of guilt. It can be tempting to say things like "I'm sorry for everything I've done to you," but try to avoid these blanket statements. They miss the opportunity to be truly reflective about how your wrongdoings have impacted the other person and can be misread. The other person may hear the same statement as exasperation with them or a minimizing of the ways you've hurt them. Instead, try to reference specific times when you hurt the other person and/or let them down. Being specific also makes the amends that you offer more achievable. You may not be able to rectify "everything" you've done to the other person, but you can repair specific wrongs.

State how you are taking personal responsibility for the hurt you've caused. Making amends means apologizing but also goes one step further doing everything in your power to repair the damage, restore the relationship, and/or, replace what you took. If you're writing a letter, whether sending or sharing it in person, spend some time reflecting on and sharing the actions you're taking to redress the wrongs done.

AA Step 9 Letter Examples

Examples of making amends abound.

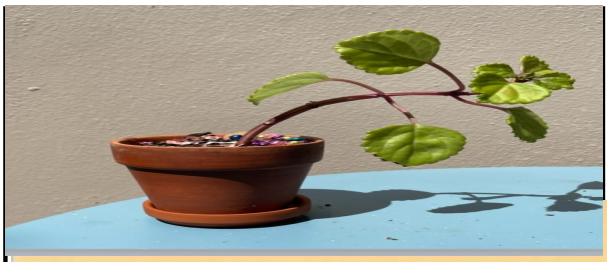
Attention



The Bill W. Plant

The Bill W. plant, also known as Swedish Ivy, comes with a great story.
Bill W. passed away on January 24th, 1971 in Miami, Florida. When his wife Lois returned to their home in New York, now known as Stepping Stones, she brought with her a plant that was in Bill's Florida hospital room.
It is rumored that Bill W. originally received this plant from Ebby Thatcher when he was in Townes Hospital, the place of his original spiritual conversion. Bill W. supposedly named his plant "Creeping Charlie" after a friend, Charlie, who kept creeping up on Bill's back porch to sleep.
Lois cared for the plant until the mid 1980's, after which she passed it on to Harriet Sevarino, beloved cook and companion for 35 years. Harriet passed the plant on to Michael M., an Atlanta AA member. Michael, in memory of Bill W., shared cuttings and offshoots of the plant with AA members all around the world.
